EMP Caravan (Volume 2) Mike Whitworth

Stranded 1,500 miles from home by an EMP, Wayne forms a trading caravan to travel east from New Mexico to Indiana and try to get home to his family who he has had no word from since the EMP. To survive he must fight off the mysterious Stinks and discover who, or what, is behind them. If he fails, the entire caravan, and his family, will die. Complicating matters, Wayne must also choose between love and duty. Wayne's major ally is Yeti, a fifteen-year-old giant of a boy he adopted right after the EMP. Yeti, an orphan, wants to keep the family he has found alive and win the heart of a special girl. Yeti, like Wayne, is willing to give his life to protect the caravan and those he loves. This is the second book in the EMP series and is a full-length novel of 94,000 words. The first book in the series is EMP: 1,500 miles from home.
