Life is all about making choices. Some are complicated. Some are simple. But for eighteen-year-old Jalen Marten, none are easy. Jalen has managed to stay invisible for his entire high school career. He has a small group of friends, and it's enough for him. He doesn't want or crave attention from his peers. All Jalen wants is to survive high school.

Austin Suter is the hot, talented tennis player who has the entire school bowing at his feet. Girls routinely throw themselves at him, and boys like Jalen stay the hell out of his way. Austin is destined for greatness on the world stage of professional tennis.

The kiss between them wasn't supposed to happen. Falling in love definitely hadn't been part of Jalen's plan.

And when Austin turns pro, Jalen begins to realize that the choices he makes will affect Austin's life. One wrong choice and Austin's career could be over before it really begins. Jalen is not sure where he fits, or even if he fits at all in Austin's life. But the more complicated things become, the less the idea of being apart appeals. Love should simplify things, not complicate them.
