Weep No More, My Lady, Judy Garland's last husband remembers the life, legends & Mickey & Pinchot, Ann Deans

In this way Mickey Deans sums up his relationship with the most popular and enigmatic female singer the world has ever known: Judy Garland. In this book Mr. Deans, Miss Garland's last husband, reveals not only the story of their impulsive life together but also the truths concerning her personal conflicts and her problems with alcohol and drugs. To analyze the mystique of the Garland appeal Mr. Deans and the best-selling author Ann Pinchot paint a moving picture of Judy's mercurial life, from her girlhood days as the daughter of Ethel and Frank Gumm to her funeral in 1969, which attracted more than twenty-six thousand mourners.
