One year ago, I lost all my memories. Who I was, where I was from, all of it was gone. I tried to live past it, looking only to the future, but the darkness that was my past still haunted me. Angela Starr had no memory of who she was after that accident one year ago and it wasn't until a man from clear across the galaxy came, saved her life, and took her to this strange new world did she feel that she finally belonged. But the question still remained, who was she? Why did he risk her life for her? And more importantly, why were people trying to kill her? With no one wanting to answer her questions, Angel Starr must face the truth and force herself to get her memories back, or all could be lost. The paper is a collection of all three novellas of A Falling Starr Trilogy: Forgotten, Found, Free.
