BASED ON A TRUE STORY! Ten percent of profits from this story will be donated to the Wayne Foundation, an organization devoted to ending domestic sex trafficking. TRIGGER WARNING! Intended for mature readers.

This is the story of how I became a victim of sex trafficking, right in my own home city.

It started with a seduction.

It happened at a party. There were dozens of other people there. And it was a friend of my family, a boy that my parents knew and liked, a boy who was a good friend of my brother.

But the darkest and most wicked things can happen in public, I found that out. And seemingly innocent and harmless actions can have the most devastating consequences.

And that the worst evil can come wearing a smiling face ...

This novella contains the first five stories in the VICTIM series, previously published separately, with additional content
