An Inspector Horace Mystery - The Mystery Light P D Jones

A classic murder mystery with many twists and turns. On light duties after being shot, Inspector Horace is given a baffling case by his Chief Inspector; to keep him occupied more than anything else. With the post-mortem report having gone astray, Inspector Horace just has a photograph of the body to go on, which, interestingly, shows the lady's right hand clenched like it was holding something prior to her death; then, throughout the duration of the investigation, he puzzles over what connection an electric light above a bedside cabinet that takes five attempts on the pull cord to switch on, could possibly have to the death of the man's wife. Inspector Horace, having the husband down as prime suspect, plans to find out, and prove his theory right about what he thinks happened.
