Sports Handicapping John Patrick

John Patrick's Comments:

"Sports Betting is (by FAR) my biggest gambling favorite. The key to betting Sports, just like casino games, is cutting losses and accepting small wins. If you can't accept those two keys ----- Sports Betting is not your game!"

Excerpt from page 209:

All through this book you will see me adhere to the suggestion that you DON'T do a certain thing. Look at these examples:

- a) DON'T play short.
- a) DON'T play scared.
- a) DON'T give profits back.
- a) DON'T fall in love with a team.
- a) DON'T chase your money.
- a) DON'T listen to other people.
- a) DON'T lay more than 6 points on the road.
- a) DON'T lay more than 8-5 in baseball, unless it is a Parlay or Round Robin.

There are many others, but you'll notice that the advice is all geared to cutting losses. Well, years ago my losses were killing my wins. I could win 4 games, lose 3 and be out of money. In other words, I was winning more games than the house, but they were ending up with the money. I invented the Regression System and have lived by it ever since.
