Knock And It Shall Be Opened Annette Journet Jaco

As a young woman who had to learn about faith in God and not in herself or her own power Annette Journet Jaco realized that this growing faith within her would become a God confidence. That kind of faith in God would get her through some horrible storms she faced in her life and invite her to enter into a peace which passes understanding. A personal journey of how the author discovered a Savior that would personally show up in the midst of her circumstances, Knock And It Shall Be Opened, challenges you to trust in Him. He will answer. Since we all need a Savior, since we all need someone to hold us, since we all need to be mended from our broken wounds. We can all knock. He will answer.
