Sons of God: To Lure Your Prey Rebecca Ellen Kurtz

NIMROD - called the greatest hunter by Elohim, the builder of the Tower of Babel, and the former ruler of all the world - has no challenges left. His only remaining intellectual competition is the trickster Loki, who is rarely heard from anymore. As each century passes, Nimrod becomes increasingly emotionally despondent and mentally bored until SAMANTHA enters his world. As an archaeological researcher, Samantha's quest is to prove the existence of his Nephilim race, and thus Nimrod himself, to the world. Her constant disdain and intellectual mind games, her hidden work relationship with Loki, and Loki's romantic pursuit of her is the answer to making Nimrod feel his former self and return to being the greatest hunter again.
