The Book of Knights

The Book of Knights

Similar in scope and vision to best-selling titles The Book of Angels and The Book of the Dragon, this sumptuously illustrated volume presents legends of that romantic, noble medieval warrior, the knight. In magnificent full-color spreads, author and award-winning illustrator L.A. Williams provides a brief background on the real life, training, and weaponry of the historical knight, before leading into thrilling tales of gallant and sometimes ruthless mythical knights from a range of traditions.

The Book of Knights is an adventure with every turn of the page.

INCLUDES:

- o The Nordic hero Beowulf slaying the beast of the lake and rescuing a Danish kingdom
- o Joan of Arc fighting against the British and Burgundian occupation of France
- o The notorious Battle of Agincourt, where the heavily armored French fell to the army of King Henry V
- o King Arthur and his Knights of the Round Table
