Not So Ordinary: Shane Caitlin Perreault
Heartbroken, Becky Tanner finds an unlikely companion in Shane Reaves, the lead singer of the band she works for. There is only one problem; he's the brother of the man who hurt her.

Trying to find herself again, she heads back to Los Angeles for a break. Going home comes with a catch though, she lives with the two men, and is about to be shut in with Shane for two weeks. Would the time alone with the darker of the two brothers give her the answers she needed, or just fill her with more questions?

Shane Reaves knew he had made a mistake sleeping with his brother's girlfriend, but she had awakened something inside him that had been dead a long time.

Seeing Becky so conflicted, he thought flying her home with him had seemed like a good idea. He wasn't prepared for the playful and driven woman he got when the front doors of his house closed behind them. Shane had expected to be the one helping Becky, but had never anticipated her being the one to save him.

Together, they dance along a fine line, while looking for a way to coexist with the darkness dwelling inside them both.
