John Macquarrie, a Master of Theology Owen F. Cummings

John Macquarrie, the premier Anglican theologian of our time, has sought to clarify the meaning of Christian doctrine in a language that is accessible and intelligible to the interested student of theology. He has bridged the thinking of Roman Catholicism and Anglicanism, providing fruitful ecumenical links that have been the basis for the intense interest in theological dialogue between the churches.

Written in a clear and engaging style, often connecting the thought of this great Scottish theologian with personal anecdotes of his life as a teacher and mentor, this book reveals not only the best of the way theology is done in our age, but gives us a glimpse into the life of a truly engaging and inspiring Christian leader.
