Although still a young witch, Bonnie Bennet must ally with the Salvatores against Klaus Mikaelson and his ambitions. The problem: she's fallen for the enemy and the enemy has fallen for her. No one knows their secret, but to keep Klaus from killing the people she loves, Bonnie has to strike a deal with another vampire she was certain she couldn't trust, Damon Salvatore.

A wounded Damon Salvatore turns to booze and bouts of brooding to cope with his heartache. When Klaus visits him and proposes a truce, Damon sees the gesture as a chance to put an end to their feud forever. Damon hatches a plan to rid them all of Klaus using the one weapon he believes could harm the deadly Original more gravely than any wooden stake.

On their quest to defeat Klaus, Bonnie and Damon face new dangers, and along the way the two discover something neither of them expected.

'Love and Other Delicate Things' is the opening tale in The Bennett Witch Saga, a series of short stories surrounding the life of Bonnie Bennett set in an alternate universe Mystic Falls as she contends with fate, love and the undead.
