Patriotism, National and International an Essay (Classic Reprint) Sir Charles Waldstein

Excerpt from Patriotism, National and International an Essay

"Humanity demands that the horizontal should supersede its perpendicular subdivisions."

"He is the best cosmopolite
Who loves his native country best." Tennyson.

"He loves his native country best
Who loves mankind the more"

"Periclean Athens, the Renaissance in Italy, and the Abolition of Slavery are as much our country as are England, France, Germany, and the United States."

"The aim of all education is to make ideals realities, with power to guide our thought and action."

"After all, a man is religious in the degree in which ultimate ideals are real to him."
