Each book can be read as a stand alone or in order of the series. Mature content, not intended for under 18 years of age.

Beth Campbell grew up poor. The kind of poor that people only hear of but never actually see—the dirty-no-electricity-in-the-winter kind of poor. But she had brains, grit, and determination. She was making a better life for herself, until she met a man—and made a mistake.

Now at age twenty-five she's a single mother working hard once again, making a better life for herself and her three-year-old daughter, Zoe. She's learned from her mistakes and is focusing on the right things. No more wishful dreams for her.

Dr. Mac Malone was minding his own business on his daily run when he heard a child's scream. Before he knew it, he was Zoe Campbell's savior. Falling in love with the little girl was easy. Convincing her mother he really was a good guy was something altogether different. Can he help Beth learn to trust again?
