Who you think you are, what you say you are, and how you see yourself, shapes your identity and ultimately, your behavior and actions. There are those who are not sure of who or what they identify with and are living in a perpetual state of hopelessness, chaos and confusion. These individuals are considered to be having an identity crisis. This phenomenon has also sadly infiltrated the church, as there are also believers who don't know their identity in Christ. These believers are not fully utilizing their birthright privileges, thus living unfruitful, defeated and barren lives. In Identity Crisis, Author Chikita Mann will explore how one can gain a new identity in the natural and show the correlation as to how a new identity is gained in Christ.
