**Warning--This book contains strong sexual content, adult language, rape, and violence. It is intended for readers over the age of 18.** ~ This book can be read as a stand alone and does have a Happily Ever After ~ After growing up with Ryder, Harley never expected one night to change everything between them. The line between friends and lovers blurred but she didn't want to risk their friendship. She expected her freshman year of college to be hectic, fun, exciting, and for it to give her the opportunity to meet new people. What Harley never expected was to meet Hunter, he was wonderful in every way but Ryder was never far from her thoughts.

Instead of going to college, Ryder decides to start his own custom paint business and patch in to the same motorcycle club as his dad. No matter what he's doing or who he's with he can't let Harley go.

But when lies start to surface and tragedy strikes twice...who will be the one to put Harley's broken heart back together?
