Bailey, the Family Pet Huck Pilgrim

In a world where biotech has given the human race a new hormone that allows people to transition to pets, a middle aged man walks his young female pet through the park. She is eighteen, lean and nude. She walks at the end of a short leash. She can no longer speak. The hormones have taken that power from her. Her libido is raging on high. She eats kibble from a bowl in the garage. Human pets are the new Viagra. Bailey is one such pet. Why did she do it? She is young and beautiful and her many friends from the Brynmoore swim club adore her. But Bailey has a terrible secret. Becoming a human pet is her last good hope for a satisfying life. Bailey the Family Pet is the tale of one woman's quest to discover herself in a hostile world that's new and changing.

This book is a dark and gritty, a realistic erotic fantasy romance. It's for adult readers only.
